NISSAN NAVARA TITANIUM LIMITED EDITION

NISSAN NAVARA TITANIUM LIMITED EDITION. NOW WITH EXTRA EXTRAS.

Just when you thought Australia's Most Powerful Tradie couldn't possibly get any better, the Nissan Navara Titanium Limited Edition roars onto the scene. Like its namesake, the lustrous, silvery-grey metal of incredibly high strength and resistance named in tribute to the Greek Gods, the Nissan Navara Titanium Limited Edition is set to become the stuff of legend.

These powerful titans are strictly limited, and each is packed with a mindboggling array of extra extras. That's extras on top of both standard extras and added extras. In fact, it's every extra our team could think of.

And when it comes to extras as standard, it goes without saying that the Nissan Navara Titanium Limited Edition has all the grunt, power and performance you need to get the job done. On the inside it's rocking with heated seats, sunroof, Bose® audio speakers, satellite navigation and reversing camera. All showing that absolutely no compromises have been made in the creation of the Nissan Navara Titanium Limited Edition.

Tough customers, this one's for you. If you want more bang for your buck, crammed with extra extras, packing some serious clout and extreme good looks, it doesn't get any better than this.

Don't miss your opportunity to own Australia's Most Powerful Tradie, the Nissan Navara Titanium Limited Edition - with so many extra extras and so little time, you'd better get in quick.
